Dear President Stone and Fellow Harbor Commissioners,

Please accept this correspondence as my official resignation from the Crescent City Harbor Board. It has been an honor and a privilege to have served on this board for the past 2 years, and I have greatly appreciated working with all of you.

The reasons behind my resignation are both personal and professional and I have no plans to discuss them. I have not come to this decision lightly; a lot of thought and personal reflection has been done to reach this decision and I feel that it is the best course of action for me to take at this time.

My resignation from the board is immediate; I wish you nothing but luck moving forward in your quest to continue to bring the Harbor forward in a positive and productive way.

Respectfully,
